PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS education is one of the most important factors contributing to successful government by the people; and

WHEREAS the teachers and educators in all schools and in all grades, from the primary grades through the colleges, are the quiet, effective, self-sacrificing, and loyal workers who make possible for the general public the manifold benefits of methodical education;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. Q. Sharpe, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period from April 10 to April 16, 1944, as

and I do urge all our citizens during that time to consider and practice appropriate ways and means of expressing our appreciation to our teachers in all schools for their public-spirited work, and to give them our encouragement by visiting their schools and classes and co-operating with them always for the production of the best grade of citizenship for our country. I would recommend to all student bodies and organizations including the Young Citizens League that they put on some kind of appropriate school program or exercises during Teacher Appreciation Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, this 21st day of March, 1944.

M Q Sharpe
